returns received in manuscript of all shapes and sizes could not be bound properly as they ought to be. The omissions and inaccuracies noted below were commonly found in the returns for last year, and special care should be taken that such mistakes are not repeated :—

(1) Date of birth not shown, or found to disagree with that shown in the previous year's return, without the sanction of Government to the alteration being furnished.

(2) Dates of appointment to present post and promotion to present pay not shown, or incorrectly entered.

(3) The names, &c, of gazetted officers not entered at the head of the detailed statement.

(4) Name of office from which an employé was transferred not stated, or in the case of a new employé, reference to the month's establishment bill with which his health certificate was forwarded not given.

(5) Orders creating the post or sanctioning the allowance not stated, or incorrectly quoted.

(6) Orders under which an officer was permitted to remain in service after attaining the age of 55 not stated.

(7) Certificate of the comparison of the return with the service book omitted.

(8) Detailed statement of new names in form 4 not furnished.

(9) Cause of omission of the names of former incumbents in form 3 (i. e., the schedule of establishment) not explained, nor their names, etc., entered in form 4 (old form 3 A).

(10) The date from which an officer ceased to be borne on the establishment not entered.
